Committee rules provide for the maintenance of the website as a means for furthering the Committee's legislative and oversight responsibilities including communicating to Members.

By placing information on this website, the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the U.S. House of Representatives does not waive or modify any constitutional, common law, or other right, privilege, or immunity that it may possess or that may be available to it including, in particular, the protections that inure to it and its Members under the Speech or Debate Clause of the Constititution, U.S. Const. art. I, 6, cl. 1.