In response to a request from Reps. Waxman and Meehan, the Office of Professional Responsibility in the Department of Justice will investigate whether improper political interference contributed to the Department's stunning reversals in the litigation against the tobacco industry. Documents and Links

- Follow-up Letter
- Original Letter to DOJ Inspector General Glenn A. Fine
- DOJ Response