A report released by Rep. Waxman finds that the Administration's proposed changes to Head Start would worsen existing problems in access to dental care for low-income children in the program. Documents and Links

- Report: Head Start Helps Low-Income Children Receive Necessary Dental Care