Rep. Waxman asks Florida Governor Jeb Bush about his role in securing a $236 million contract for Carnival Cruise Lines in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. New emails show that the governor facilitated Carnival's contact with FEMA as it negotiated this boondoggle contract.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Governor Bush