Chairman Waxman writes the State Department to request the name of the companies that hired the contractors who gained unauthorized access to Senator Obama's passport files and to urge the State Department to release this information to the public.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Secretary of State Rice