Executive Vice President and President
CVS Caremark

Dear Mr. DeVaney:

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is continuing to investigate the role of Pharmacy Benefit Managers (PBMs) in pharmaceutical markets. The Committee is concerned that independent pharmacies have potentially been targeted for punitive audits in retaliation for their public support of legislation recently passed by the Committee.[1] The Committee has engaged in a multi-year effort to reform the role of PBMs and make prescription drug prices more affordable for Americans.[2] Independent pharmacies from across the country have provided testimony and information in support of these efforts.[3]In the short span of time since the Committee's July markup of H.R. 6610, the Pharmacists Fight Back in FEHB Plans Act, multiple independent pharmacies that supported the Committee's efforts have received an unusual number of audit notices for minuscule prescription charges after the stated compliance deadline date from CVS Caremark. This raises concern that these audit notices were sent or timed to retaliate for their support of H.R. 6610. The Committee therefore requests documents and communications related to CVS Caremark's pharmacy audits, as well as a staff-level briefing.

Since 2021, the Committee has investigated PBMs and has worked to reform the PBM payment system for federal healthcare plans with more transparency based on the actual cost of medication and to protect the patient's freedom to choose where they fill prescriptions, including independent pharmacies.[4] Independent pharmacies have personal relationships with many of their customers and play an important role in many communities. Many such pharmacies have assisted this committee over the years, most recently with their vocal support of the Committee's passage of the Pharmacists Fight Back Act in July.[5]

Concern about PBMs using routine audits as a punitive or retaliatory measure is not unprecedented. The Committee notes public reporting from earlier this year that a PBM settled a state lawsuit for excessive audits of an independent pharmacy.[6] The Florida Attorney General's Office has also responded to concerns of efforts by CVS Caremark to impose undue burdens through the audit process.[7]

To assist the Committee in its oversight of this matter, we request the following information, covering the time period July 22, 2026, to the present, unless otherwise indicated, as soon as possible but no later than November 6, 2026:

1. All Provider Manuals;

2. All pro forma Provider Agreements;

3. List of all audit types performed by or on behalf of CVS Caremark, including but not limited to desk audits, in-person audits, unannounced audits, and compliance audits, performed in relation to its pharmacy benefit management business;

Additionally, the Committee requests that CVS Caremark provide a staff-level briefing as soon as possible, but no later than October 30, 2026. The briefers should be prepared to discuss topics including, but not limited to, the following:

1. The scope and nature of the audits conducted by CVS Caremark;

2. How CVS Caremark selects an independent pharmacy to audit; and

3. Any audits of the entities that supported H.R. 6610, the Pharmacists Fight Back in FEHB Plans Act.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee of the U.S. House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X. To schedule the briefing and arrange for delivery of documents or to ask any related follow-up questions, please contact the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform Majority staff at (202) 225-5074. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,

James Comer
