In a letter to Ranking Member Davis, Chairman Waxman responded to his request that the Committee investigate the role of President Clinton in the establishment of ozone standards set by the EPA in 1997 by detailing the Congress' exhaustive examination of the issue that occurred at the time of the decision.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Ranking Member Davis