Chairman Waxman sent letters to each of the nation's state hospital associations requesting information about their efforts to halt the epidemic of healthcare associated infections and whether proven solutions have been implemented.

Documents and Links

- Sample Letter to State Hospital Association