A new report released by Rep. Waxman finds that, under the Administration's proposed energy policies, U.S. dependence on foreign oil will continue to increase markedly into the foreseeable future. Documents and Links

- The Report