Reps. Waxman and Davis today released a GAO report detailing the Department of Defense's pandemic influenza preparedness efforts. While the department has taken some important steps, accountability, funding, and communications need to be clearer and more focused across the Department to fully prepare for the threat. Documents and Links

- GAO Report on Influenza Pandemic
- GAO Request Letter
- Press Release