The Oversight Committee requests documents that would explain why a TSA website that collected Social Security numbers and personal information from the public operated for several days without basic security measures. Documents and Links

- Letter Requesting Documents from TSA