Rep. Waxman asks Vice President Cheney, Energy Secretary Abraham, and EPA Administrator Whitman to explain an e-mail produced by EPA which indicates that the report released by the Vice President's task force tried "desperately" to avoid mentioning California, the state with the most pressing energy crisis facing the country at the time.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Vice President Cheney
- Attachment
- May 28 EPA Response