Rep. Waxman, Rep. Jackson, and Sen. Jeffords write the U.S. Olympic Committee to express concerns about a taekwondo rule change that encourages young black belts to disable opponents with kicks to the head – a rule change that medical experts say puts children at risk of serious injury. Documents and Links

- Letter from Reps. Waxman and Jackson
- Letter from Sen. Jeffords
- Press Release