The Defense Department Inspector General has referred the Halliburton fuel contract to the Defense Criminal Investigative Service for investigation of possible criminal violations. Documents and Links

- Letter to Defense Department Inspector General