Chairman Henry A. Waxman released the following statement today in response to EPA's denial of California's waiver request:

"EPA's decision ignores the law, science, and commonsense. This is a policy dictated by politics and ideology, not facts. The Committee will be investigating how and why this decision was made."