Following an FDA's Advisory Committee recommendation that over-the-counter cough and cold medications for children under six be removed from the market, Chairman Waxman calls on the member companies of the Consumer Healthcare Products Association to voluntarily withdraw these products from store shelves.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Dr. Linda Suydam, President of CHPA