Following a staff review of a number of previously-withheld climate change documents, Chairman Waxman and Ranking Member Davis now request that 56 of those White House documents be provided to the Committee to further its investigation into allegations of political interference with climate change science. Documents and Links

- Letter to CEQ Chairman Connaughton
- CEQ's Response to Earlier Requests