Today Chairman Waxman wrote to Secretary Rice following reports that a Blackwater contractor, who was fired after he shot and killed an Iraq security guard, was hired by Combat Support Associates, another private contractor, to work in the region two months later. A letter was also sent to the President of Combat Support Associates requesting information about the former Blackwater contractor.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Secretary Rice
- Letter to Combat Support Associates