Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

August 17, 2016

The Honorable Jeh C. Johnson
Secretary
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Recent news accounts report that on August 10, 2016, two members of the criminal street gang, MS-13, were sentenced in federal court to serve life in prison for two murders and an attempted murder in Northern Virginia.[1]

Jose Lopez Torres, 26, of Falls Church, and Jesus Alejandro Chavez, 25, of Alexandria, Virginia were sentenced at a hearing at U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.[2] According to court records, Torres was sentenced to life in prison plus 30 years and Chavez was sentenced to two life sentences plus 10 years in prison,.[3]

The reports state Torres laughed when he recalled stabbing to death a fellow gang member who begged for his life.[4] Torres allegedly became an MS-13 member in El Salvador at age nine and had risen to second in command of his local Alexandria clique after he illegally immigrated to the United States.[5] Chavez allegedly was released from prison just eight days earlier on a violent robbery conviction.[6]

To assist the Committees' investigation of the circumstances of the continued presence of these individuals in the United States, provide all documents referring or relating to these individuals, including, but not limited to:

1. Enforcement Removal Operations Executive Summaries;

2. Documents referring or relating to procedural history, criminal history, and/or immigration history;

3. All immigration benefit applications received by the Department or any component agencies;

9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.

10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.

11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
