Hi Bill, I understand from Jon that Ms. Lerner is willing testify, and she is requesting a one week delay. In talking to the Chairman, wanted to make sure we had this right.

I would rather talk to you in person, but so that we do not lose too much time, I can tell you that we can probably move forward if the committee agrees that her appearance at a deposition would satisfy any obligation she has or would have to provide information in connection with this investigation. It would probably help if we can talk further. For her to take the risk inherent in waiver, she would need assurance she is resolving her issues with the Committee. As I think I said last night, I am out of town Monday.

Hi Bill,

Thank you for coming in to speak with us this afternoon. We conferred with the Chairman about your suggestion. While he can't take the prospect of Ms. Lerner testifying publicly before our Committee on this topic off the table, he would be willing to have her in under subpoena on Monday to answer questions in a staff deposition. As long as she answers all of our questions – and I want to be clear that nothing would be off the table including questions about possible 6103 disclosures – the Chairman would consider whether it was still necessary to bring her back on Wednesday.
