Dr. Brett Giroir
Acting Commissioner
Food and Drug Administration
10903 New Hampshire Avenue
Silver Spring, MD 20993-0002

Dear Messrs. Ray and Giroir:

Over two months ago, President Trump and his top health officials publicly vowed to protect America's youth by clearing the market of all flavored vaping products, including mint and menthol. The President pledged that the action would come from the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) within a "couple of weeks."<sup>1</sup>

The strong promises made by the President and his Administration to address the youth vaping epidemic were incredibly encouraging. Now, however, the delay in finalizing the Administration's compliance policy raises deep concerns. The American people believed that federal regulator action to protect youth from highly addictive e-cigarettes would be published by late September, and it was not. Over nine weeks have passed since President Trump made his announcement. I seek your assistance in understanding the cause of the delay.

The circumstances surrounding the FDA compliance policy appear to be highly irregular. FDA sent the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) the compliance policy on October 25, 2019.<sup>2</sup> OIRA announced that it had completed its review of the policy on November 4, 2019. It is my understanding that in nearly every instance, when OIRA completes its review of agency action, it sends the action back to the agency, and the agency promptly publishes the final action. However, with regard to FDA's "flavor ban," the Administration has deviated from normal protocol, and an extraordinary 11 days have passed since OIRA appears to have completed its review, and FDA has still not published a final compliance policy.

A comprehensive flavor ban is needed. Teen-age vaping is an epidemic and the American people want to know where this compliance policy stands. Currently, 27.5% of American high schoolers report using e-cigarettes, and the sooner we implement this important policy, the more youth will be saved from a lifelong addiction to nicotine and e-cigarettes.

The reason that I write to both of you jointly is because, unless this compliance policy has entered irregular channels, it should be sitting with one of your offices. Therefore, I seek a response from each of you stating which of your offices currently has the compliance policy.

In order to investigate this matter, the Subcommittee is requesting the following information by close of business today:

1. Has OIRA completed review of the compliance policy?
2. Has OIRA indicated to FDA that FDA can publish the guidance under its own discretion?
3. If OIRA has completed its review, on what grounds is FDA withholding publication of the compliance policy?

The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to the Committee's request. If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Subcommittee staff at (202) 225-5051.

Sincerely,

Chairman
Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy

18. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data, or information not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
