The Honorable Peter T. Gaynor
Administrator
Federal Emergency Management Agency
500 C Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20024

Dear Administrator Gaynor:

Last week, we visited Puerto Rico as part of a congressional delegation to witness the damage from recent earthquakes and to survey Puerto Rico's painstaking progress in recovering from the 2017 hurricanes. We were moved by the resilience of our fellow citizens in Puerto Rico in the face of back-to-back natural disasters, and we saw first-hand that Puerto Ricans urgently need more federal assistance. We believe that both the federal government and the government of Puerto Rico must work to enhance accountability and transparency and to ensure that critical relief reaches the people of Puerto Rico who need it most.

We are concerned by recent reports indicating that disaster-relief supplies in a warehouse in Ponce remained in storage for more than two years rather than being distributed to families in need following the 2017 hurricanes or the recent earthquakes. According to these reports, this warehouse was operated by the Puerto Rico Emergency Management Agency (PREMA) and was stocked with supplies from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), including bottled water, diapers, baby formula, portable stoves, propane gas, and other supplies.<sup>1</sup>

Following these public reports, the Government of Puerto Rico apparently has taken steps to distribute these supplies to families in need.<sup>2</sup> In addition, the Governor terminated the Commissioner of PREMA and initiated an investigation by the Bureau of Special Investigations within Puerto Rico's Department of Public Safety. We understand that the preliminary results of that inquiry have now been referred to the Public Integrity Division of Puerto Rico's Department of Justice for an in-depth investigation.<sup>3</sup>

While these are important steps, we seek to fully understand why supplies at the Ponce warehouse were not distributed more quickly and whether additional steps are necessary to ensure that crucial federal aid reaches the people of Puerto Rico without further delays.

For these reasons, please produce the following documents by Tuesday, March 10, 2020, covering the period from January 1, 2017, to the present:

1. Documents sufficient to show the inventory of supplies FEMA provided for the Ponce warehouse, the date FEMA provided these supplies, the purpose for which they were provided, and the steps FEMA took to track these supplies; and
2. All documents and communications regarding the collection and distribution of supplies in the Ponce warehouse.

The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time” under House Rule X.

An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to this request. If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Oversight Committee staff at (202) 225-5051.
