Mr. Umais Abubaker
Chief Executive Officer
Cool Clouds Distribution, Inc.
316 E. 4th Street
Los Angeles, CA 90013

Dear Mr. Abubaker:

The Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy requests documents and information on Puff Bar disposable e-cigarettes and the Puff Krush add-on.

On January 2, 2020, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) published a guidance document designed to clear the market of certain flavored e-cigarette products. The guidance on flavors included a wide exemption for disposable e-cigarettes.¹ The Subcommittee seeks information on Puff Bar's disposable offerings, which come in 24 different flavors, and the Puff Krush flavored tip to add on to vaping devices, which also comes in various flavors, including but not limited to, Mango, Cool Mint Ice, Sour Apple, and Kiwi+Strawberry.

The Subcommittee is concerned that youth may migrate to your fruity-flavored, disposable products if they stay on the market while most flavored pod-based vapes are removed from store shelves. That would undercut the purpose of FDA's partial flavor ban.

The Subcommittee is also concerned that Puff Krush appears to be a new tobacco product specifically designed to circumvent FDA's partial flavor ban. Puff Krush can be added onto other vaping devices, converting them into flavored products. The Puff Krush packaging shows the device being inserted onto an image of a JUUL device, and your company markets them as "produced to function with nicotine salt devices."²

² Puff Krush, Home Page (online at www.puffsalt.com/collections/puff-krush) (accessed Feb. 20, 2020).

The Subcommittee is also concerned about whether your products were on the market as of August 8, 2018. If not, your products could be subject to immediate FDA enforcement action.

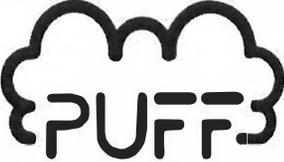

Your company first filed its Articles of Incorporation in California on May 1, 2019.³
