Acting Director
Immigration and Customs Enforcement
Department of Homeland Security

Washington, D.C. 20536

August 14, 2020

Dear Acting Director Albence:

We are writing to request information on the “citizens academy” trainings being offered to civilians by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). The content and scope of these programs remains largely unknown to the general public and Congress, raising serious questions about their nature and purpose.¹

ICE recently announced that it was expanding its citizen academy program—which previously was focused on the Homeland Securities Investigations (HSI) unit—with a new, six-week course in Chicago focused on the work done by the Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) unit.² According to a letter sent to “valued member[s] of the community,” the Chicago citizens academy is “the first of its kind” and will “serve as a pilot for nationwide implementation.”³

ICE describes this latest citizens academy in a letter to potential applicants as “an interactive six-week program” in which “key stakeholders” can “gain insight into the many facets and responsibilities of ICE/ERO operations” and help to “build a strong foundation of knowledge for those intrigued by the ERO mission.”⁴ According to ICE’s website, ERO’s mission is the “arrest and removal of aliens.”

The letter also states that this citizens academy will involve “scenario-based training and exercises in a safe and positive environment, including, but not limited to defensive tactics, firearms familiarization, and targeted arrests.” The letter neglects to mention that the curriculum apparently includes a visit to an immigration detention center, which could violate detainees’ privacy rights.

The announcement of this program has caused distress in Chicago’s immigrant community, particularly in light of the Administration’s harsh immigration strategy. Because there is no publicly available information about the nature of the “scenario-based training” described in the letter, officials and others in Chicago are voicing concerns that citizens academies would amount to an unchallenged opportunity for ICE to whitewash its deportation activities in an attempt to bolster its public image.

The apparently intensive nature of the six-week pilot program also raises the possibility that the citizens academies will encourage individuals in the community to help carry out the ERO’s mission.

This appears to be the latest of a series of citizens academies piloted by ICE. As part of ICE’s HSI academies, civilian participants have taken part in simulated confrontations with suspects that involve active shooting scenarios. Such role-playing exercises—are of dubious public benefit.
