Washington, DC 20502

Dear Ms. Noveck:

The Information Policy, Census, and National Archives Subcommittee of the Oversight and Government Reform Committee requests your testimony at a hearing entitled, “Government 2.0: How Federal Agencies Use Social Media and Other Web 2.0 Technologies,” Thursday, June 24, 2010 at 2:00 p.m., in Room 2154 Rayburn House Office Building.

The hearing will review federal agency use of Web 2.0 technologies, such as open data, shareable content, user-centered design and social networking/media. Your testimony should reflect your assessment and knowledge of these recent web technologies. Please discuss how federal agencies’ use of Web 2.0 technologies can foster transparency, collaboration and participation in government. Please also detail the initiatives the Administration has taken to implement Web 2.0 technologies as part of the Open Government Initiative. Finally, please discuss the next steps for federal agencies in leveraging current and future investment in Web 2.0.

The Oversight and Government Reform Committee is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives, with broad oversight jurisdiction as set forth in House Rule X. Information for witnesses appearing before the Subcommittee is contained in the enclosed Witness Information Sheet.

Witness Information Sheet

The following is a summary of some of the pertinent rules and procedures applicable to witnesses testifying before the Information Policy, Census and National Archives Subcommittee, Oversight and Government Reform Committee:

- Witnesses should bring 100 copies of their written testimony to the hearing or to Room B-349C Rayburn HOB, Washington, D.C., 20515. Witnesses should also provide their statement in electronic format by e-mailing it to Charisma Williams, Staff Assistant, at Charisma.Williams@mail.house.gov. Testimony should be received no later than three business days prior to the hearing.
- At the hearing, each witness will be asked to summarize his or her written testimony in five minutes in order to maximize the time available for discussion and questions. Each witness' full written testimony will be included in the official hearing record.
- House Rule XI clause 2(g)(4) requires that witnesses appearing in a nongovernmental capacity submit to the Committee in advance of the hearing "a curriculum vitae and a disclosure of the amount and source (by agency and program) of each Federal grant (or subgrant thereof) received during the current fiscal year or either of the two previous fiscal years by the witness or by an entity represented by the witness."
- The Oversight Committee does not provide financial reimbursement for witness travel or accommodations. Witnesses with extenuating circumstances, however, may submit a written request for such reimbursements to: Robin Butler, Financial Administrator, 2157 Rayburn House Office Building at least one week prior to the hearing. Reimbursements will not be made without prior approval.
- Witnesses with disabilities should contact Committee staff to arrange any necessary accommodations.
- Committee Rules governing this hearing are online at www.oversight.house.gov.
- The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. The jurisdiction of the Committee is set forth in the House Rules X, clauses 1(m), 2, 3, and 4.

Please direct inquiries regarding these rules and procedures to the Information Policy, Census and National Archives Subcommittee, (202) 225-6751.
