The Honorable Michael J. Astrue
Commissioner
U.S. Social Security Administration
6401 Security Boulevard
Baltimore, MD 21235

Dear Commissioner Astrue:

As part of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform's ongoing investigation into agency spending on conferences, I am writing to request detailed information about several of the Social Security Administration's conferences. Documents provided in response to the Committee's April 10, 2012, request showed the Social Security Administration held twenty-two conferences for which the costs per person exceeded that of the General Services Administration's (GSA) now infamous 2010 Western Regions Conference in Las Vegas.

The American people expect that the federal government is acting as a responsible steward of their tax dollars. At a time of record budget deficits and a staggering national debt, wasteful and excessive government spending is appalling to taxpayers, many of whom are struggling to make ends meet. During the Committee's April 16, 2012, hearing on the 2010 GSA conference, Members from both sides of the aisle agreed that a number of egregious examples of waste occurred there – including the hiring of a mind reader, a clown, a $31,000 reception, and a team-building exercise with a $75,000 price tag.¹

We hoped that the GSA conference was an outlier by any metric designed to measure the level of waste and abuse. It was not. The Committee has analyzed thousands of documents obtained from federal agencies and citizen watchdogs related to conference spending in federal departments and agencies. Any conference that cost taxpayers more per person than GSA's 2010 conference in Las Vegas raised a red flag.

¹ Addressing GSA's Culture of Wasteful Spending: Hearing Before H. Comm. On Oversight and Gov't Reform, 112th Cong. (Apr. 16, 2012).

GSA's 2010 conference in Las Vegas cost taxpayers a total $3,002.20 per attendee for planning, travel, lodging, food/beverage, and activities for the duration of the conference. In other words, it cost $600.44 per attendee, per day for the five-day conference.² The Committee used these figures – cumulative cost per attendee and total cost per attendee per day – as benchmarks to identify conferences held by the Social Security Administration where wasteful or excessive spending may have occurred. Based on a comparison of the costs associated with the Social Security Administration's conferences with those benchmarks, the Committee found that the following conferences exceeded one or both of the benchmark levels:

1. Area Directors Meeting in Baltimore, MD, July 2005;
2. Commissioner's Honor Award Ceremony in Woodlawn, MD, September 21, 2005;
3. Leadership Matters Symposium in Phoenix, AZ, December 6-8, 2005;
4. Area Directors Meeting in Baltimore, MD, May 2006;
5. Leadership Matters Symposium in San Diego, CA, December 6-8, 2006;
6. Area Directors Meeting in Baltimore, MD, April 2007;
7. Leadership Conference in Woodlawn, MD, September 5-6, 2007;
8. Leadership Matters Symposium in Denver, CO, November 6-8, 2007;
9. Leadership Matters Symposium in New Orleans, LA, December 4-6, 2007;
10. Leadership Matters Symposium in Los Angeles, CA, March 12-14, 2008;
11. Area Directors Meeting in Baltimore, MD, April 2008;
12. Leadership Matters Symposium in Philadelphia, PA, June 10-12, 2008;
13. Leadership Matters Symposium in Boston, MA, October 28-30, 2008;
14. Class N Senior Executive Service Candidate Development Program CORE Training, in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, December 8-12, 2008;
15. Leadership Matters Symposium in Anaheim, CA, December 10-12, 2008;
16. Leadership Matters Symposium in San Antonio, TX, January 27-29, 2009;

² According to GSA, the total cost of the Western Regions Conference was $840,616, and the number of attendees was 280. The conference spanned 5 days, from October 25-29, 2010. Therefore, the per person costs was $3002.20, or $600.44 per person per day. See General Services Administration, "Western Regions Conferences Review," (amounts identified as of April 11, 2012).

17. 2009 Office of the General Counsel Spring Training Conference and Awards Ceremony in Baltimore, MD, May 12-14, 2009;
18. Leadership Matters Symposium in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, May 20-22, 2009;
19. National Public Affairs Conference in New Orleans, LA, June 23-25, 2009;
20. Leadership Matters Symposium in Jersey City, NJ, June 23-25, 2009;
21. Commissioner's Honor Awards Ceremony in Woodlawn, MD, September 23, 2009; and,
22. Presidential Management Fellows Program in Woodlawn, MD, March 1-2, 2010.

So that the Committee may better understand the cost, planning, and agenda for each of the conferences that exceeded the benchmark spending levels, please provide the following information:

1. All documents and communications referring or relating to any of the conferences listed above, including, but not limited to, documents relating to conference itineraries, agendas, menus, descriptions of entertainment, speakers, venue selection criteria, and attendance rosters;
2. All documents and communications referring or relating to conference budgets; and,
3. All documents and communications referring or relating to any conference not listed above which cost more than $3000.20 per attendee or $600.44 per attendee, per day.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and may at "any time" investigate "any matter" as set forth in House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional information about responding to the Committee's request.

We request that you provide the requested documents and information as soon as possible, but no later than noon on July 26, 2012. When producing documents to the Committee, please deliver production sets to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building. The Committee prefers, if possible, to receive all documents in electronic format.

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
