The Honorable Jacob J. Lew
Secretary
U.S. Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20220

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We write to notify you that we remain extremely disappointed with the Treasury Department's lack of full cooperation with the Committee's investigation into the preferential treatment afforded to Delphi's unionized employees during the bankruptcy and taxpayer-funded bailout of General Motors. This continued lack of cooperation has left little choice but the issuance of a subpoena to compel the production of documents relevant to the Committee's investigation.

The Committee's examination of the Delphi matter dates back more than three and a half years. As was noted in our July 23, 2013, letter to you, requests for information were sent to your predecessor on January 13, 2010, August 8, 2011, and September 27, 2012.¹ Nearly a year after the Committee's last request, the Department still had not fully responded; the Department instead provided only a fraction of the responsive documents.

Taxpayers deserve the full truth about how decisions were made to use their money in an Administration effort that resulted in protecting generous pensions for unionized Delphi employees while greatly diminishing benefits for non-unionized employees. It was our hope that under new leadership, Treasury would cooperate with the Committee and provide all of the documents and information necessary to advance this investigation. Instead, the Department's most recent production of materials included only a fraction of the materials responsive to our request.

¹ See Letter from Reps. Darrell Issa, Dan Burton, Michael Turner, and Jim Jordan to Timothy Geithner, Secretary, U.S. Department of the Treasury, and September 27, 2012.

We expect the Treasury Department will now move without delay. This subpoena requires you to produce to the Committee all responsive documents in unredacted form. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
