

Gary R. Shifton
Division Chief, OCONUS Subsistence Prime Vendor
Defense Logistics Agency Troop Support

Gary R. Shifton is the outside the continental U.S. (OCONUS) Prime Vendor division chief for the Subsistence supply chain at the Defense Logistics Agency Troop Support.

In that role, Mr. Shifton is responsible for the procurement of all Subsistence items, including perishable, semi-perishable, fresh fruits and vegetables, bakery and dairy products including all associated distribution services, which support U.S. military troops deployed throughout the Middle East. Mr. Shifton's responsibility accounts for the acquisition of more than $1 billion annually in subsistence items.

Mr. Shifton has more than 26 years of federal purchasing, logistics, international business, supply chain management and inventory control experience.

Mr Shifton is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, Ohio and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, specializing in production and operations management.