

Committee on Oversight & Government Reform Artwork

“I really feel strongly that in the oversight committee room we should be inspired by those we serve.”

Chairman Jason Chaffetz

Winter Solitude

- Photographer: Charlie Lansche
- Date Published: January 4th, 2015

Taken in January along the Provo River with Mount Timpanogos in the distance.

Ben Franklin Bridge and Philly Skyline

- Photographer: Charlie Lansche
- Date Published : March 2013

The Ben Franklin Bridge spans the Delaware River connecting Philadelphia with Camden, New Jersey.

Women Workers in World War I

- Source: Library of Congress
- Photographer: Unknown
- Date Published: Between 1914 and 1918

Women making and crimping fiber powder containers for 3" Stokes guns during World War I. Taken at the W.C. Ritchie & Co. in Chicago, Illinois.

Postal Workers

- Source: Library of Congress
- Photographer: Warren K Leffler
- Date Published: March 1, 1966

Warren Leffler was a photographer for US News and World report. This image is of postal workers loading mailbags into trucks for delivery.

Civil Rights March to Montgomery

- Source: Library of Congress
- Date Published: 1965

Civil Rights Protesters on one of three marches from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.

Utah Copper Miners

- Source: Library of Congress
- Date Published: November 1942

Copper miners using a rock-drill machine at the Bingham Mine in Bingham Canyon, Utah.

By the Dawn's Early Light

- Photographer: Paul Bingham
- Date Published: November 11, 2010

The American flag catches the morning's first rays of sunlight as it is hoisted from one of the peaks of Kowtale Paymor Mountain on the outskirts of Kabul, Afghanistan in honor of Veterans' Day, November 11, 2010.

Golden Spike

- Source: National Archives
- Date Taken: May 10, 1869

The joining of the Central Pacific and Union Pacific Lines at Promontory Point, Utah on May 10, 1869. The “Golden Spike” was the ceremonial last spike driven in by Leland Stanford to join these rails to form the first Transcontinental Railroad across the United States.

Workman on the Empire State Building

- Source: National Archives
- Photographer: Lewis Hine
- Date Published: 1930

A steelworker on the framework of the Empire State Building high above the city with the Chrysler Building prominently in the background.

Lincoln Memorial

- Source: Library of Congress
- Date Published: May 3, 2006

President Lincoln served on the Post Office and Post Roads Committee and the Expenditures in the Department of War Committee—two committees preceding the modern-day Oversight and Government Reform Committee.