The Honorable Jeh Johnson
Secretary
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Mr. Secretary:

The Committee is reviewing the Department of Homeland Security's policies and procedures for the apprehension, detention, and release of aliens unlawfully present in the United States. As you are aware, according to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), the agency released 36,007 criminal aliens in fiscal year 2013.¹ One-thousand of these aliens were subsequently convicted of new crimes after they were released.²

In light of those alarming figures, we are requesting documents and information that will help us understand how many convicted criminal aliens ICE released from its custody in fiscal year 2014, and how many of those that were released were subsequently convicted of new criminal offenses. To assist the Committee, we request the Department produce the following documents and information as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on April 16, 2015:

1. The number of criminal aliens placed in a non-custodial setting in fiscal year 2014, broken down by mandatory versus discretionary placements and by criminal conviction categories;
2. The number of subsequent convictions of criminal aliens who were placed in a non-custodial setting in fiscal year 2014, broken down by initial and subsequent criminal conviction categories, and by initial mandatory versus discretionary placements; and,
3. The most recent Weekly Departures and Detention Report (WRD).

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and may at "any time" investigate "any matter" as set forth in House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional information about responding to the Committee's request.

Requested records, documents, data or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
