COMMITTEE ON OVERSIGHT AND GOVERNMENT REFORM

August 7, 2015

The Honorable John H. Thompson
Director
U.S. Census Bureau
4600 Silver Hill Road
Washington, D.C. 20233

Dear Director Thompson:

The Committee is concerned about the Census Bureau's decision to use taxpayer dollars to hire Dick Gregory to address its workforce on February 11, 2015.[1] Mr. Gregory used racially-charged language and made statements that were "not appropriate"[2] and "offended some members of the audience."[3] The decision to hire Mr. Gregory raises questions about the Bureau's commitment to creating a culture of respect for all of its employees.

The Committee seeks to better understand the Bureau's policy for inviting and vetting external speakers and its stewardship of taxpayer funds. To assist the Committee, please provide the following documents and information:

1. A list of all speakers on non-technical topics since January 1, 2010. For each speaker, include:

    a. the date of the remarks;

    b. a copy of the invitation issued by the sponsoring division;

    c. the speaker's biography;

    d. the topic of the speech;

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.

9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.

10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.

11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.

13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.

16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
