The Honorable John Koskinen
Commissioner
Internal Revenue Service
1111 Constitution Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20224

Dear Mr. Koskinen:

On January 15, 2016, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) disclosed that it had erased an IRS employee's hard drive in April 2015, destroying documents covered by a federal district court's preservation order.¹ The court issued that preservation order pursuant to a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) lawsuit filed by Microsoft relating to the IRS's potentially inappropriate hiring of an outside law firm to assist in auditing Microsoft.² That order covered the hard drive of Samuel Maruca, an IRS transfer pricing specialist.

The destruction of evidence subject to preservation orders and subpoenas has been an ongoing problem under your leadership at the IRS. In spite of the existence of a preservation order, a non-destruction order from the Department of Justice, and a Congressional subpoena, the IRS destroyed 422 email backup tapes on March 2, 2014.³ Those backup tapes contained as many as 24,000 emails sent or received by Lois Lerner during the IRS targeting of conservative groups.⁴ The loss of those emails will likely forever deny the American public a full and total understanding of the IRS targeting scandal.

It is stunning to see that the IRS still does not take reasonable care to preserve documents that it is legally required to protect. This latest violation comes in spite of the fact that IRS Chief Technology Officer Terry Milholland said that he was "blown away" when he learned how poorly the IRS handled the backup tapes in the IRS targeting investigation, and stated that IRS IT senior management was ultimately responsible.⁵ It is now apparent that the IRS has not solved the management problems that have led once again to the destruction of documents in contravention of its legal obligations.

You should also produce documents that you have a legal right to obtain, that you have a right to copy or to which you have access, as well as documents that you have placed in the temporary possession, custody, or control of any third party. Requested records, documents, data or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.

6. Documents produced to the Committee should include an index describing the contents of the production. To the extent more than one CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box or folder is produced, each CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box or folder should contain an index describing its contents.

7. Documents produced in response to this request shall be produced together with copies of file labels, dividers or identifying markers with which they were associated when the request was served.
8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.
13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.
14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.
16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
17. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.
18. Two sets of documents shall be delivered, one set to the Majority Staff and one set to the Minority Staff. When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
