The Honorable Megan J. Brennan
Postmaster General
U.S. Postal Service
475 L'Enfant Plaza SW
Washington, D.C. 20260

Dear Madam Postmaster General:

In 2013, the Town of Miami Lakes, Florida, requested that the Postal Service conduct a boundary review to determine whether an independent zip code could be assigned to Miami Lakes.¹ USPS conducted a review and determined that an independent zip code would not be operationally feasible and would be cost prohibitive.² To better understand the decision, Miami Lakes filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for “any studies, including documents which were relied upon by the South Florida District Office in denying the Town’s request for a zip code boundary review” and “a detailed breakdown of costs which support the District Office’s determination that assignment of an independent zip code is not economically feasible.”³

On March 13, 2015, USPS sent a response letter to the request.⁴ The letter stated that “we are unable to grant your request as such records would fall under FOIA exemption (b)(3) – Federal Law – applies to information that is exempt from disclosure under another federal statute, such as: 39 U.S.C. 410(c)(2): Information of a commercial nature, including trade secrets, whether or not obtained from a person outside the Postal Service, which under good business practice would not be publically disclosed.”⁵

USPS went on to say the requester could appeal if “you interpret this letter as a denial.”⁶ It is further unclear whether or not USPS conducted a search for responsive records and made a page by page determination of whether to release such records. Under FOIA, a responding agency “shall make reasonable efforts to search for records” and even if some information contained within a record is exempt, “any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided.”⁷

¹ Letter from Michael Pizzi, Mayor, Miami Lakes, to Orlando De La Osa, Hialeah Postmaster, USPS (Jan. 7, 2013).

² Letter from Elizabeth A. Schaefer, Manager, USPS, to Wayne Slaton, Mayor, Miami Lakes (Dec. 16, 2013).

³ Letter from Raul Gastesi, Gastesi & Assoc., to USPS FOIA Requester Service Center (Dec. 19, 2014).

⁴ Letter from Mailin Donahue, A/Consumer and Industry Contact Manager, USPS to Raul Gastesi, Gastesi & Assoc. (Mar. 13, 2015).

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.
16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
