March 21, 2016

The Honorable Charlie Bolden
Administrator
National Aeronautics and Space Administration
300 E Street, SW
Washington, DC 20546

Dear Mr. Bolden:

The federal government owns and leases more than a quarter million buildings across the country and around the world.[1] Nearly all of these buildings and facilities contain several pieces of art acquired with taxpayer dollars. Art collections in federal buildings bring creative and artistic beauty to public spaces, and create attractive work environments for federal employees and the public that they serve. These taxpayer funded art programs, however, raise the potential for wasteful spending.

For more than a year, the Committee has been conducting oversight of the Department of State's expenditures related to art and architecture. Pursuant to that effort, the Committee is reviewing how federal agencies acquire and preserve such art and artifacts. To assist the Committee, please provide the following documents and information as soon as possible, but by no later than 5:00 p.m. on April 4, 2016:

1. Documents referring or relating to the number, nature, location, and monetary value of art (including, but not limited to, paintings, mural and easel, photographs, prints, sculptures, artifacts, electronic-based artworks, textiles, ceramics, and stained glass) that the agency purchased, received on loan, acquired through seizure, or otherwise possesses;

2. The process by which the agency acquires art and artifacts;

3. Documents referring or relating to the resources used by the agency to preserve art and manage exhibits, including, but not limited to, the number of employees involved in the management of the collection, and any exhibits;

4. Documents referring or relating to the amount of taxpayer funds used to acquire and preserve the agency's art and artifact collection since January 1, 2006;

5. A list of pending purchases or acquisitions of art and artifacts;

6. Documents referring or relating to insurance premiums paid on art and artifacts since January 1, 2006;

7. Documents and communications referring or relating to cost estimates for purchased and/or loaned art and artifacts since January 1, 2006;

8. All contracts related to art and artifacts purchased or procured by the agency since January 1, 2006; and

9. Documents and communications referring or relating to statutory or regulatory authorities, including, but not limited to, agency guidance, that supports the agency's art and artifacts related activities.

In addition, please provide a briefing on this matter as soon as possible, but by no later than 5:00 p.m. on April 4, 2016.

When producing documents to the Committee, please deliver production sets to the Majority staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building. The Committee prefers, if possible, to receive all documents in electronic format. An attachment to this letter provides additional information about responding to the Committee's request.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal investigative committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. Pursuant to House Rule X, the Committee has authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time."

If you have questions about this request, please contact Brian Lattanzi of the Committee staff at (202) 225-5074. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jason Chaffetz
Chairman

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.

9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.

10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.

11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.

16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

17. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.

18. Two sets of documents shall be delivered, one set to the Majority Staff and one set to the Minority Staff. When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
