The Honorable John H. Thompson
Director
U.S. Census Bureau
4600 Silver Hill Road
Suitland, MD 20746

Dear Director Thompson:

On November 3, 2015, the Subcommittees on Government Operations and Information Technology held a joint hearing to discuss the status of the 2020 Decennial Census. Part of a series, this hearing was designed to help ensure the Bureau is on course and on schedule to conduct the 2020 Decennial Census. We appreciate your participation, along with Department of Commerce Chief Information Officer (CIO) Steve Cooper and leaders from the Government Accountability Office.

During the hearing, we raised concerns about the Bureau's failure to meet its own technology milestones. Compounding those concerns is the ever-tightening timeline that exacerbates the Bureau's current challenges. The information technology (IT) challenges for the upcoming Census appear similar to those that plagued the 2010 Decennial Census.

To our knowledge, the Census Bureau has not taken action to address this concern we raised five months ago. Further, to our knowledge, the Bureau has still not hired a Chief Information Officer to lead the development and deployment of technology for the 2020 Census. Simply put, the American public deserves to have a permanent, accountable CIO at the helm.

In addition, it appears the Bureau may not have adequate time to test systems, other than perhaps "device as a service" for enumerators. The more complex end-to-end testing—where scaling and operational control of all the field work simultaneously come into play—may remain untested before being deployed in 2020. As a result, we remain concerned about the status of planned tests for these critical IT components.

To help the Committee understand how the Bureau is addressing these issues, please provide the following documents and information as soon as possible, but by no later than May 24, 2016:

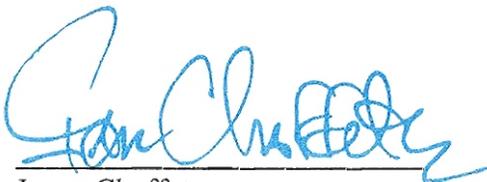

1. A detailed status update on the Bureau's hiring of a CIO;
2. Documents sufficient to show the status of progress toward the milestones previously established by the Bureau for conducting the 2020 Decennial Census on time (including adhering to all performance and systems testing schedules);

3. Documents referring or relating to any specific changes, adjustments, or remediation plans the Bureau has made to its IT schedule to ensure that the Bureau is on course and on schedule to conduct the 2020 Decennial Census;
4. Documents sufficient to show whether the Census End-to-End Test will be completed on time, no later than December 2018; and
5. Documents referring or relating to any and all performance testing that has or will be undertaken prior to the overall system test.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal investigative committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. Pursuant to House Rule X, the Committee has authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time."

Please contact Patrick Hartobey or Liam McKenna of the Majority Committee staff at (202) 225-5074; Graham Haile of Chairman Meadows' staff at (202) 225-6401; Mark Stephenson or Tim Lynch with the Minority Committee staff at (202) 225-5051; Jay Cho or Zachery Ostro at (202) 225-0773 for Ranking Member Kelly; and Dominic Bonaiuto or Andres Bascumbe at (202) 225-2492 for Ranking Member Connolly with any questions about this request. Requested records, documents, data or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.
13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.
14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.
16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
17. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.

When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
