The Honorable Steve A. Linick
Inspector General
U.S. Department of State
Room 8100, SA-3
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Inspector General Linick:

On June 6, 2016, we requested that your office open an inquiry into the State Department's Bureau of Public Affairs, specifically regarding a deletion from the Department's website and YouTube channel of video footage that depicted an exchange between James Rosen, a Fox News correspondent, and Jen Psaki, then-State Department spokesperson, at the December 2, 2013, State Department daily press briefing.¹ In response to our request, your staff briefed the Committee on August 23, 2016.² At the briefing, your staff informed us they had conducted a "preliminary inquiry" that found "inconclusive and contradicting facts."³

According to your staff, the preliminary inquiry was not a full investigation—it relied primarily on interview transcripts and other materials turned over by the Department's Office of Legal Adviser. The transcripts and other materials were collected in the course of the Department's internal review, titled "Department of State Review of December 2, 2013 Daily Press Briefing Video Footage." Your office conducted five additional interviews and uncovered an email exchange between State Department Public Affairs staff and White House staff regarding the portion of the December 2, 2013 press briefing that was edited.⁴ None of the witnesses were placed under oath.⁵

To help the Committee understand your office's methodology and findings, please provide all documents and communications that your office obtained and/or considered in the course of the preliminary inquiry, including but not limited to, interview notes, documents produced by the Department of State Office of Legal Adviser, memoranda, and emails. Please produce these documents as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on September 9, 2016.

¹ Hon. Jason Chaffetz, Chairman, H. Comm. on Oversight & Gov't Reform and Hon. Ron DeSantis, Chairman, Subcomm. on Nat'l Sec. to Hon. Steve A. Linick, Inspector Gen., U.S. Dep't of State (June 6, 2016).

You should also produce documents that you have a legal right to obtain, that you have a right to copy or to which you have access, as well as documents that you have placed in the temporary possession, custody, or control of any third party. Requested records, documents, data or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.
13. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.
14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.

When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
