The Honorable Jeh Johnson
Secretary
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Mr. Secretary:

On July 14, 2016, Dan Ragsdale, Deputy Director of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, testified before the Committee at a hearing titled "Recalcitrant Countries: Denying Visas to Countries that Refuse to Take Back their Deported Nationals." The use of section 243(d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) to address such cases was discussed at the hearing. The provision states, in pertinent part:

On being notified by the Attorney General that the government of a foreign country denies or unreasonably delays accepting an alien who is a citizen, subject, national, or resident of that country . . . the Secretary of State shall order consular officers in that foreign country to discontinue granting immigrant visas or nonimmigrant visas, or both, to citizens, subjects, nationals, and residents of that country until the Attorney General notifies the Secretary of State that the country has accepted the alien.¹

We understand that after last exercising this statutory authority in 2001, you have now issued a letter notifying the U.S. Department of State of Gambia's failure to repatriate its nationals that have been ordered removed.²

To help facilitate the Committee's oversight in this area, please provide any correspondence you sent to the State Department regarding visa denials for those seeking to travel to the U.S. from Gambia.

Please provide these records as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on October 19, 2016. Should your response necessitate production of classified documents or information, please provide those as an appendix to the letter under separate cover.

10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
