

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
TO H.R. 4182
OFFERED BY MR. CONNOLLY OF VIRGINIA

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

1 SECTION 1. STUDY ON LENGTH OF PROBATIONARY PE-
2 RIOD.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Comptroller General of the 4 United States shall conduct a study on Federal agencies
5 that have lengthened the employee probationary period
6 from 1 to 2 years and other potential extensions of proba-
7 tionary periods for certain occupations in the Federal Gov-
8 ernment.

9 (b) CONTENTS.—The study required under sub-
10 section (a) shall analyze—

11 (1) any impact of an existing 2-year proba-
12 tionary period (compared to a 1-year probationary 13 period) on the employing agency's ability to deal
14 with underperforming employees, improve produc-
15 tivity, improve recruitment and retention, and ac-
16 complish the mission of the agency and shall include 17 the Department of Defense as a case study; and

1 (2) whether certain occupations in the Federal 2 Government should have probationary periods in ex-
3 cess of 1 year because of the complexity, sensitivity,
4 or unique occupational challenges of such occupa-
5 tions, including—

6 (A) whether such a probationary period ex-
7 tension would provide supervisors sufficient
8 time to adequately assess employee performance
9 and whether the extension would lead to 10 measureable improvements in the performance
11 of employees in those occupations; and

12 (B) an identification of the occupations,
13 and the characteristics of those occupations,
14 that would benefit from longer probationary pe-
15 riods, including requirements to exercise super-
16 visory authority and possess professional li-
17 censes and training.

18 (c) REPORT.—Not later than 2 years after the date
19 of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General shall 20 submit to the Committee on Oversight and Government
21 Reform of the House of Representatives and the Com-
22 mittee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs
23 of the Senate a report containing the study required under 24 subsection (a).

Amend the title so as to read: “A bill to provide for a study on the length of probationary periods for certain Federal employees, and for other purposes.”.
