Greenpeace Unearthed
Canonbury Villas

Dear Mr. Carter:

We are writing to request information regarding recent videos produced by Greenpeace's Unearthed and posted on your website under the title "Inside Exxon's Playbook: How America's Biggest Oil Company Continues to Oppose Action on Climate Change."<sup>1</sup> These videos appear to be substantially edited, creating an incomplete record of the conversation that occurred with Exxon employee, Keith McCoy.

As you are aware, based upon Channel Four Television Corporation's reporting on Greenpeace's posting and videos, the Committee on Oversight and Reform Chairwoman Carolyn Maloney requested a transcribed interview of Mr. McCoy.<sup>2</sup> As clearly stated on your website, Mr. McCoy was unaware that he was speaking with members of Greenpeace's Unearthed: "Unearthed reporters posed as recruitment consultants looking to hire a Washington DC [sic] lobbyist" as they questioned Mr. McCoy.<sup>3</sup> Your webpage reveals this deception and contains only edited video excerpts and a characterization of the "interview" but there are no links to the entire video interview or a full transcript.

Given the request for a transcribed interview by the Committee Chairwoman and to gain a better understanding of the context in which Mr. McCoy was asked and answered questions posed to him by an employee of Greenpeace's Unearthed, we request that you provide Committee Republicans with the full unedited video of the interview and an unedited transcript as soon as possible, but no later than August 26, 2021. It is critical that the American people view the interview in its entirety before forming any judgments on the veracity, context, and
