Jonathan C. Davidson
Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs
Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Ave. NW
Washington, D.C. 20220

Dear Mr. Davidson:

The Committee on Oversight and Accountability is in receipt of your letter dated March 6, 2023, declining to attend a Committee hearing noticed for March 10, 2023. As you are aware, on January 11, 2023, the Committee requested the Department of the Treasury (Treasury) produce certain information in the custody of Treasury, including certain Suspicious Activity Reports. Almost two months after this request, Treasury has provided no documents or responsive information to the Committee. Additionally, Treasury refuses to give a timeline of when such documents will be provided to the Committee despite our repeated accommodations outlined in our February 24, 2023 letter.

Therefore, the Committee requests that you, as Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs within Treasury, make yourself available for a transcribed interview with Committee staff on March 14, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. in Rayburn House Office Building, Room 2157.

To confirm your appearance, please contact Committee on Oversight and Accountability staff at (202) 225-5074 by March 8, 2023.

The Committee on Oversight and Accountability is the principal oversight committee of the U.S. House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time” under House Rule X.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this important investigation.

Sincerely,

James Comer

Chairman

Committee on Oversight and Accountability
